

Safety Advice 04-2000 (A) (NZ)

FALL FROM A NEW POLE

An employee, while moving to a work position or attempting to tie off to a cross arm, fell 15 metres from a concrete pole. The victim sustained serious injuries and a company/OSH investigation of the accident is currently underway. Further details will be advised once the investigation is completed.